Notes, Powers & Enchantments

In battle, the Exemplar may opt to read from the Book of Vendettas and invoke its power against his enemies. The Exemplar must roll under his PW score to successfully invoke the powers contained in its writing. If he does not make the roll the action is wasted. While he may try a subsequent attempt, he may not use a concentration action to bolster his test.

- 1) Retribution. The deeds of the offending army are recorded in his book, their atrocities against the Firstborn now infamous. An Exemplar may, in a booming voice carried up to 16" and in LOS, recite these charges against his enemies who will be assaulted by overwhelming visions of the pain and suffering they have caused against the Firstborn. The bombardment is so intense it will leave the victims shaken and disoriented. Place a small explosion template over the closest targeted model. Each model under the template must make a morale test verses Dread. Automatons, Elementals, and Undead are immune to this effect.

Requirements: May be attached to a warband of Knights Temporal, otherwise treat as an Individual.

BEHEADING:

Should a model with this ability take the last wound from an enemy with a roll of 4 or less, they have succeeded in decapitating their foe completely. Enemy models within 6 inches and LOS will be affected by a shocking feeling of Panic for the remainder of the turn. So disheartening is their effect that the enemy LD tests are conducted at a -2 penalty.

By contrast, friendly models within 6" and LOS gain a +2 to their LD for the remainder of the turn. Panicked models within range and LOS will rally. Models greater than one SZ category than they are or models without a visible head may not be beheaded in this manner.

FIELD COMMANDER:

While the Exemplar is a feared and respected presence in the armies of the Firstborn, he is not able to command them with the broad powers of other leaders and knights. As a Field Commander, the Exemplar may spend an action to become part of a warband of Knight's Temporal and assume command of it. A routed warband of Knights Temporal may be reformed into a new unit under the Exemplar's command should he successfully rally them. He may also Give Orders to a warband of Knights Temporal or Firstborn War Machines only. His ability to Give Orders to these specific units extends to 8".

HARDY:

Models that have the Hardy SA treat automatic limitations imposed by Environmental Rules as one level less than they actually are.
